

Planned Giving

Leaving a Legacy of Life

Q: What is planned giving?

A: Planned Giving (Legacy Giving) is making a commitment to give a gift to a charitable non-profit organization over time, or when you pass away. When planning your future, you can also plan for the future of one or more of your favorite charitable non-profit organizations such as Alliance for Life, Missouri (AFL).

By including Alliance for Life in your estate planning, you will be leaving behind your personal legacy AND creating a legacy of LIFE in Missouri. Your gift will help Alliance for Life continue carrying on our mission of networking to create a culture of life in Missouri and you will equip us to continue to be a voice for the voiceless.

Some Examples of Legacy Giving

There are many ways you can create this Legacy of Life with planned giving. Many people include legacy giving in their estate plan. SETTING UP A LEGACY OF LIFE GIFT

Are you ready to take the next step in setting up a Legacy of Life?

Some legacy giving options are simple and easy to set up, other avenues will require legal advice. It can be as simple as adding a paragraph in your will or trust, changing a beneficiary on your life insurance policy or by adding a POD (pay on death) on your bank account or a TOD (transfer on death) on your vehicle titles. Others may require advice from an attorney or a tax advisor.
